TEAM ONE EIGHT EIGHT

Kadal

Every fish sale, a credit history.

Every day, 1.8 lakh women sell India's fish.
Their sales leave no record a bank can read,
so they borrow at up to 120%.

Meet Selvi

42, fish vendor, Tamil Nadu coast. The family runs on what she earns.

5:00 am

Buys ₹3,000 of fish at the harbour auction.

5:15 am

No credit from the auctioneer? She borrows from a lender.

Noon

Sells door to door. Who owes her is kept in her head.

Evening

Repays the lender. Takes home ₹50 to ₹150.

Ban season

61 days, no fish, no income. She borrows again.

Selvi is a composite drawn from field reports by PARI, ICSF and The Quint.

Market Research

120%

Yearly interest

on short informal loans

₹50–150

Daily take-home

after a full day of selling

91%

Below poverty line

Tamil Nadu fisher families

Sources: ICSF (Tranquebar study) · The Quint · CMFRI Marine Fisheries Census 2016

Kadal

Speak the sale. Build the record. Get the credit.

Features

5:00 AM

Speak the sale

The auctioneer says it in Tamil. She confirms with one tap.

5:01 AM

Credit lands

A bank sends ₹3,000 to her UPI, based on her record.

ALL MORNING

Sell and collect

Customers pay by UPI QR, or she speaks cash sales in.

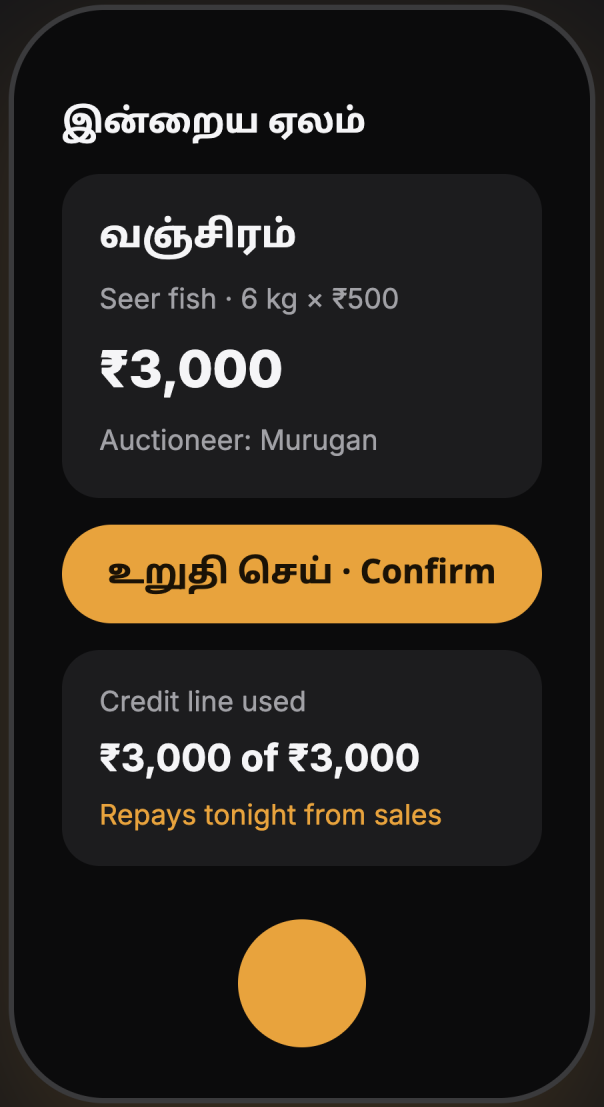

EVENING

Auto-repay

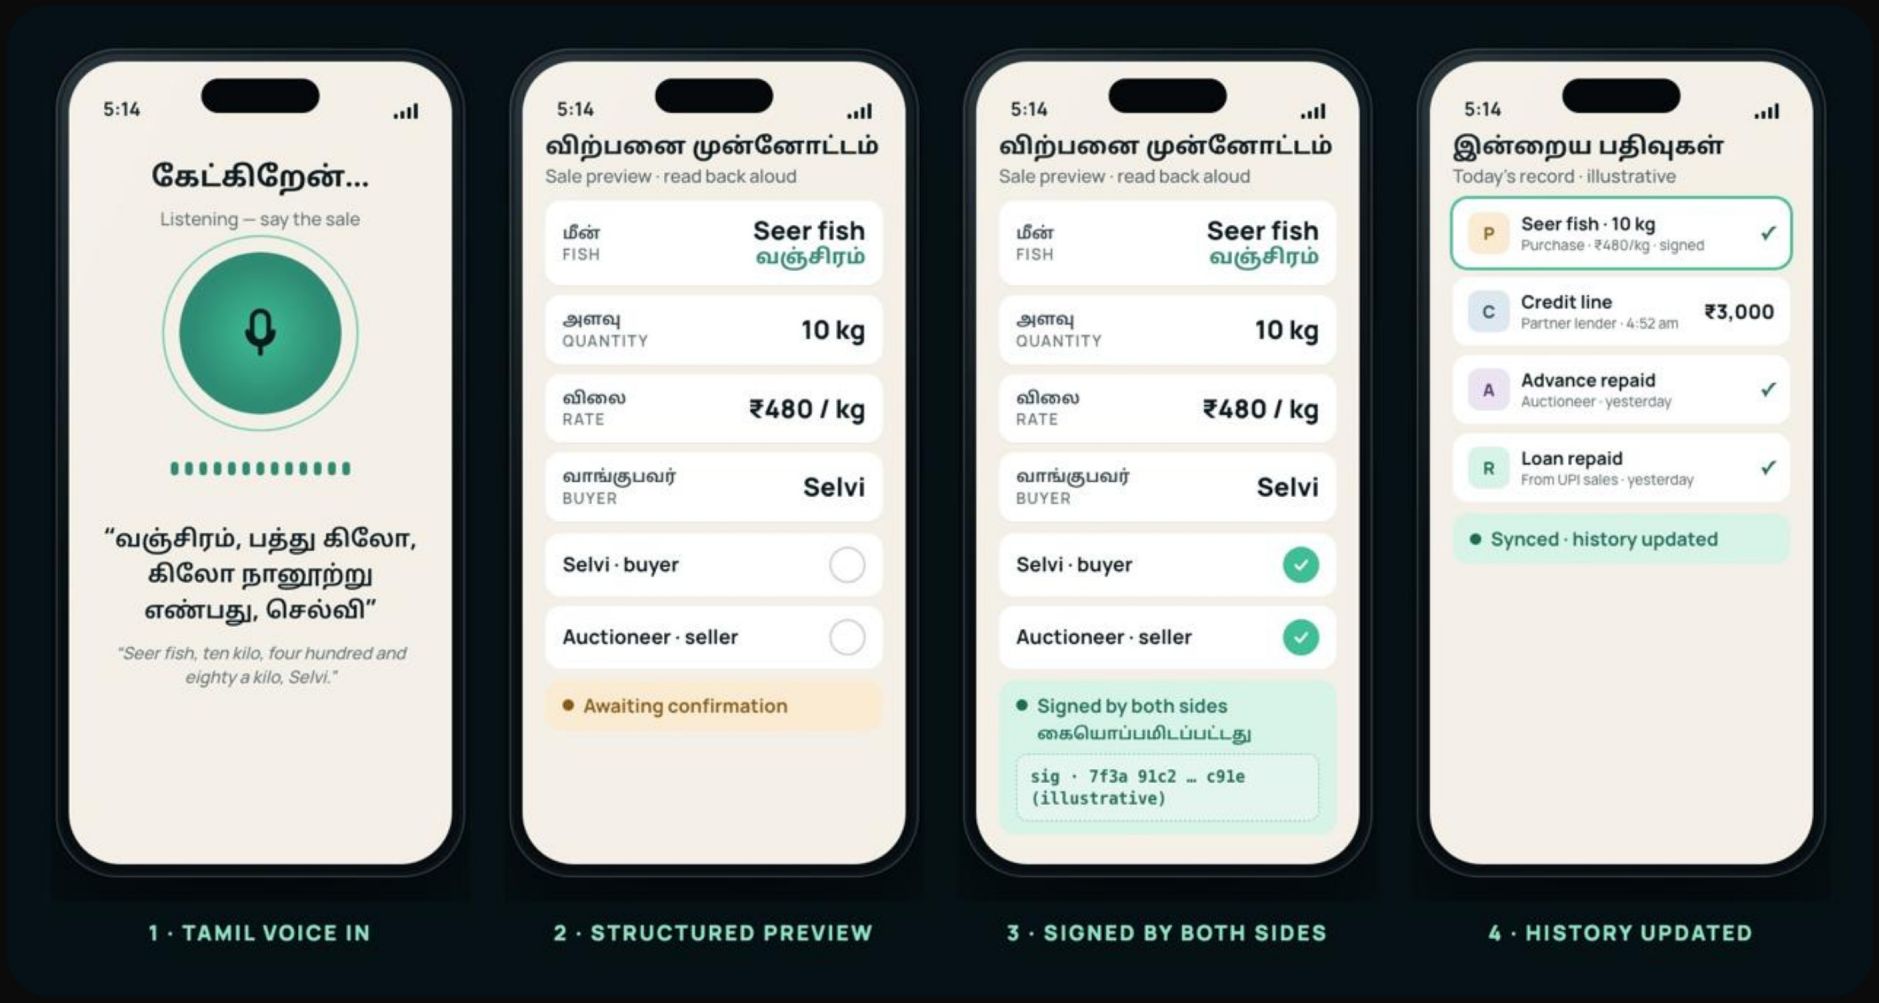

The loan clears from her sales. ₹20 goes to savings.

Made for a wet, noisy harbour

- Tamil voice in, Tamil voice read back
- Works offline, syncs at the harbour
- Signed by both buyer and auctioneer
- No smartphone? IVR, or her SHG leader helps

From voice to verified, in seconds

One record everyone trusts

Built on NPCI's DRUNIX, so no single party owns the truth.

Auction association
Signs every sale and advance

Bank or lender
Reads only what she shares

DRUNIX

Shared ledger

Signed. Private. Permanent.

SHG federation
Vouches for its members

Insurer
Prices cover on real income

Lite + Committing peers for the 5 am rush

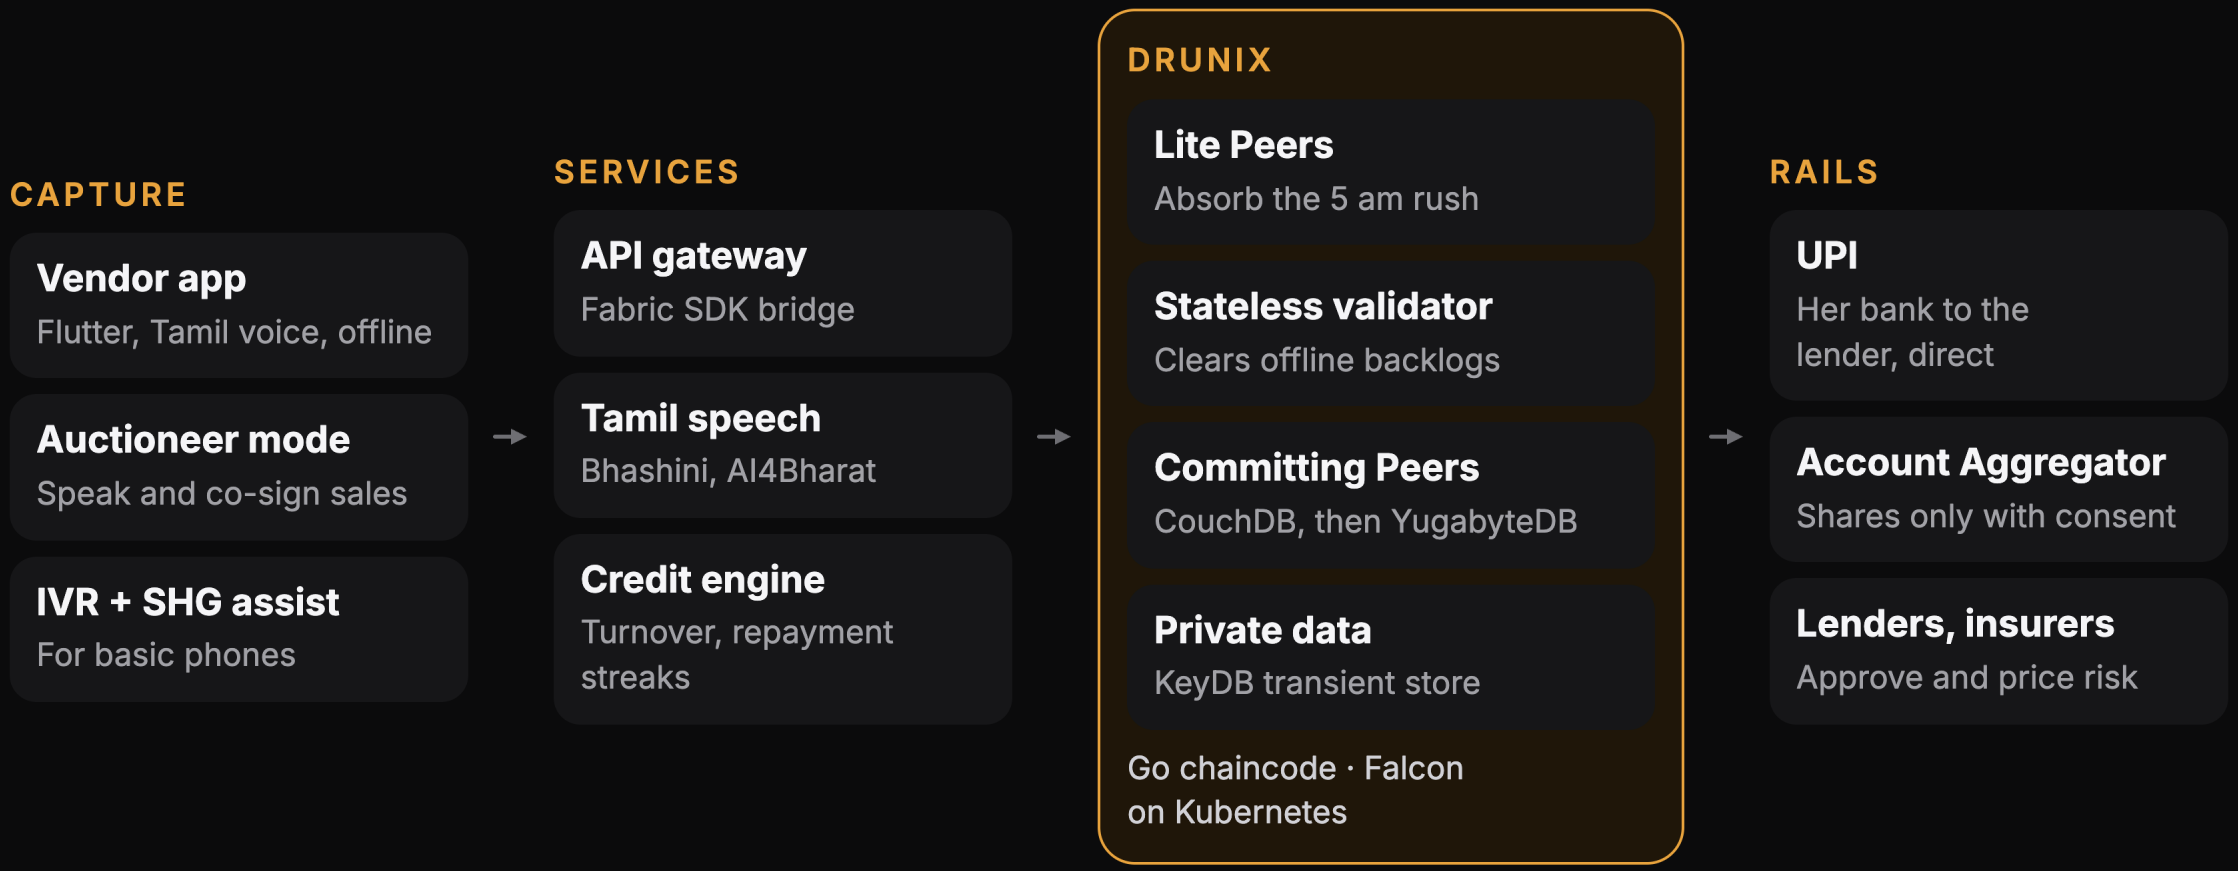

Private data per vendor

Go chaincode

Falcon deploys

Money moves over UPI, straight between her bank and the lender. DRUNIX holds the proof.

Architecture

Money never touches the ledger. UPI moves the funds; DRUNIX holds the signed proof.

Her options today

	Moneylender	Auctioneer	SHG / MFI	KADAL
Cash at 5 am	✓	✓	Slow	✓
Fair interest	Up to 120%	✓	✓	✓
Free to buy anywhere	✓	Tied	✓	✓
Builds her credit history	No	No	Group only	✓
Limit grows with her trade	No	No	No	✓

Impact

₹2,880

Kept per vendor

every year, in interest saved

₹10.3 Cr

Kept in Tamil Nadu

across 35,835 vendors a year

300

First formal loans

pilot target, in six months

Assumes ₹3,000 working capital at 120% informal vs 24% formal. Vendor count: CMFRI Marine Fisheries Census 2016.

Selvi already runs a business.
We make it visible.

KADAL · TEAM ONE EIGHT EIGHT